JESUS, OUR FRIEND

LESSON 1

The Birth of Jesus

(Luke 2:1-20; Matthew 2:1-12)

Memory Verse: Luke 2:11

"For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord."

Let us think about the birth of our friend, Jesus.

Joseph and his wife, Mary, lived in a town called Nazareth in Galilee. The king told everybody in his kingdom they had to pay taxes. To pay taxes means to give money so the government can give services to its people. Joseph and Mary could not pay taxes in Nazareth. They had to go to the city of their father's birth, so they had to travel to Bethlehem, a journey of about seventy to eighty miles. Today, that doesn't seem like far, however, since they had to walk or ride donkeys, it was a long, dusty trip.

When they reached Bethlehem a lot of other people were there to pay their taxes, too, so Joseph and Mary could not find a room in an inn or hotel.

In those days, nearly 2000 years ago, there was an open courtyard next to the inn or hotel. Here, cattle could stay at night. Poor travelers and their animals might spend the night. This may be where Joseph and Mary stayed.

While they were there, Mary gave birth to her first son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger. A manger is a place where animals drink or eat. In those days, the mangers were cut out of rock. We can, in our imagination, see baby Jesus lying in a stone manger filled with hay.

In the same country, some shepherds were tending their sheep. They stayed with them all the time, even at night. An angel of the Lord came to them. The glory of the Lord shone around about them. They were afraid. The angel said, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy. This is for all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord."

The angel told the shepherds they would find this baby in a manger in Bethlehem. Suddenly, there were many angels with the first one. They praised God by saying, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will to men." This baby will bring peace and good things to all people. Isn't that a good friend?

When the angels left, the shepherds hurried to find Joseph, Mary, and baby Jesus. They were so happy to see Jesus that they told everyone they saw about him as they returned to their sheep. Those shepherds were so thrilled about this wonderful thing that had been shown them.

Also, some wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, which is about ten miles north of Bethlehem. They asked where Jesus was, for they had seen His star in the east. They wanted to worship him.

Some men, who knew the Old Testament said he was to be born in Bethlehem. This troubled King Herod for he was afraid the baby would get his throne when he grew up. He told the wise men to go find the baby. Then, he wanted them to come back to Jerusalem and tell him where he was. He said he wanted to worship Him, too, but King Herod did not tell the truth.

Then, the star guided the wise men to baby Jesus. It came and stayed right over where He was lying. The wise men fell down on their knees and worshiped Jesus. They gave Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

God told them to go home another way, so they did not go back to King Herod, for he was a mean king.

God told Joseph and Mary to name the baby, Jesus, for he would save his people for their sins; their bad ways.

Now, who will tell us about Joseph and Mary going to Bethlehem and about Jesus' birth?

Who will tell us about the angels appearing to the shepherds?

Who will tell us about the wise men?

The teacher will help and guide you as you retell this exciting story.

Questions:

LESSON 2

The Childhood of Jesus

Matthew 2:13-23; Luke 2:22-52

Memory Verse: Luke 2:52

"And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man."

When baby Jesus was a little over a month old, Joseph and Mary took him to the temple to present him to God. The temple was the place the people went to worship God. In the temple, a very good man named Simeon came. He took the baby in his arms. He praised God for the salvation Jesus was bringing.

Then an old lady named Anna saw baby Jesus. She gave thanks to God for Jesus' birth. So we see that Jesus was a very unusual baby.

Then an angel of God appeared to Joseph in a dream. He told Joseph to take Mary and the young child to Egypt. Egypt was about two hundred miles southwest of Jerusalem. God knew that King Herod would try to find Jesus and kill him, so Joseph, Mary, and Jesus left at night for Egypt.

When King Herod died sometime later, an angel appeared to Joseph again. He told him it was now safe to return to Judea. Jesus may have been about six-years-old then. Joseph took his family to Nazareth in Galilee. He and Mary had lived there before Jesus was born.

Joseph was a carpenter; one who builds houses. He taught Jesus to be a carpenter, too. Can't you see Jesus as a boy working with Joseph in his carpenter's shop?

Every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem to observe the feast of the Passover. This was a religious feast God had told His people to observe each year. When Jesus was twelve-years-old, something unusual happened.

Jesus and his parents had stayed in Jerusalem as long as was needed to keep the feast. Then Joseph and Mary started toward their home in Nazareth, but Jesus stayed in Jerusalem. His parents supposed that he was with the group of people with whom they were traveling. After they had traveled one whole day, they looked for Jesus. They asked their relatives and friends if they had seen the boy, but no one had seen him.

So, Joseph and Mary returned to Jerusalem to look for Jesus. You can be sure they were very anxious to find Him. They must have looked all over the city of Jerusalem. They were so concerned about Him. After looking for Him for three days, they found Him in the temple. He was sitting among the teachers. He was listening to them and asking them questions. All who heard him were very surprised at His knowledge. They were amazed at His answers, too.

His mother asked why He had worried them so much by staying in the temple. He reminded her that He must be about His Father's business. By this, He meant God's business. Mary did not understand.

Jesus went on home to Nazareth with them. He obeyed His parents, doing what they wanted Him to do.

Like all boys, Jesus grew in size. He was a healthy boy. Also, He grew wiser and wiser all the time. In every city, during this time, people met in synagogues to worship God. In the synagogues were schools where all the boys were taught reading, writing, and God's word.

Jesus grew in such a way that people liked Him. He had good manners. He loved people and wanted to be with them. He got along really well with others.

Also, as he grew, God approved of what He was doing; of how He was talking and behaving.

LESSON 3

Jesus Made a Sick Boy Well

John 4:46-54

Memory Verse: Proverbs 17:17a
"A friend loves at all times."

What is a friend?

A friend loves.
A friend is kind.
A friend is helpful.
A friend is forgiving.
A friend is dependable.
A friend is patient.
A friend is truthful.
A friend is always there when you need him.

Jesus grew up to be a very kind man. He loved all people. He wanted to help them. He wanted them to be healthy and happy. Because He was God's Son, he could do miracles. A miracle is a happening that is done only by the power of God.

As Jesus went about doing good, he came to Cana in Galilee. A certain royal official lived nearby. His son was very, very sick. He was so sick he was about to die.

When this official heard that Jesus was in town, he found Jesus. He asked Jesus to come and make his son well. He said, "Sir, please come before my son dies."

Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed Jesus was telling him the truth. He went on his way home. As he was going home, his servants met him. They told him, "Your son is living. He is well!"

The man asked at what time he began to get better. They answered, "Yesterday at one o'clock the fever left him." And the father knew that it was the very same hour that Jesus had said, "Your son lives."

Of course this man was very happy. He rejoiced with his family and servants. They were happy because his son was well and because all of them believed in Jesus.

Who would like to tell about the sick boy whom Jesus made well?

(Matthew 19:13-15; Mark 19:13-16)

Some people brought their little children to Jesus. They wanted Him to put His hands on them, to bless them, and to pray for them. Jesus disciples told these people they should not bother Jesus. Evidently, the disciples thought He had more important things to do.

But Jesus was very displeased with His disciples. He said, "Bring the little children to me." He loved the little ones. He blessed them and prayed for them. We can be sure the children loved Jesus, too. He was a kind, patient friend.

LESSON 4

Jesus Makes a Sick Young Servant Well

Matthew 8:5-13; Luke 7:1-10

Memory Verse: Proverbs 18:24a

"A man that has friends must be friendly."

(The Greek language in which the New Testament was written shows that the servant was a child.)

Jesus went to a town called Capernaum. An officer in the army had a very young servant who was near death. He loved this little child very much. He did not want the child to die and he was sad. The officer sent messengers to Jesus to ask him to come and make his little servant well.

Jesus, who was always wanting to help others, went with them toward the officer's house. When he was not far from the house, the officer sent friends to Jesus. He told his friends to say, "Lord, do not bother to come to my house. I am not good enough for you to come to me or into my house. But just speak and my little servant will be well."

Jesus was surprised at such great faith as the officer had. He had said he believed that Jesus could make his servant well by just saying that he was well. He did not think Jesus had to tough his servant.

Jesus told the friends of the officer to go on back to the officer's house. He said, "As you have believed, so will you servant be well."

His young servant was made well that same hour. When the friends reached the officer's house, they saw the child well and alive. All at that house were happy and rejoicing.

Who will tell us the story of the young servant?

Questions:

1. What town was Jesus in?

LESSON 5

Jesus Made a Dead Girl to Live Again

Matthew 9:18-19, 23-26; Mark 5:21-24, 35-43;
Luke 8:41-42, 49-56

Memory Verse: John 15:14

"You are my friends if you do whatever I command you."

Jesus crossed the Sea of Galilee by ship. A man of authority came to Jesus. His name was Jairus (Ja - i - rus). He was the ruler of the synagogue which was their place of worship. He told Jesus his daughter was dying. She was twelve years old. He fell down at Jesus' feet. He asked Jesus to come to his house. He said, "If you put your hands on her, she will live."

Jesus went with Jairus toward his house. On his way Jesus was delayed by a woman who wanted to be made well. Just as Jesus made her well, a person from the ruler's house came to meet them. He said, "Your daughter is dead, so don't bother Jesus any more."

However, Jesus said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid. Only believe, and your daughter shall live."

When they came to the house, the people were crying because the girl had died. Jesus told them, "Do not cry. She is not dead. She is sleeping." The people laughed at Jesus, for they knew she was dead. Of course, Jesus knew she was dead, but He knew what He was going to do. He thought of death as being only asleep from which a person would awake.

When Jesus went into the room where the dead girl lay, he only let a few people go in with him; her father, mother, and Peter, James, and John. They were three of Jesus' twelve apostles. Jesus took the girl by the hand and said, "Maid, arise." At once she came to life. She got up and walked. Jesus told them to give her something to eat.

Her parents were so very surprised, but very happy to have their twelve-year-old daughter with them again.

LESSON 6

Zacchaeus Sees Jesus

Luke 19:1-10

Memory Verse: John 14:15

"If you love me, keep my commandments."

Jesus entered the town of Jericho. A man named Zacchaeus (Zac-ke'-us) lived there. He was the chief tax collector at the important road center of Jericho. He was a rich man. He may have gotten much of his money dishonestly. He may have collected more money than the government told him to collect. Then, he kept that extra money for himself. This, of course, was not honest, and Jesus did not approve of this.

The people who lived in these places at this time looked upon tax collectors as sinners, as very bad men. They hated tax collectors because they collected taxes for a government they did not like, and, too, they took so much money from the people. The people would have nothing to do with tax collectors. They never went to their homes or invited them to come to their houses.

Zacchaeus heard that Jesus was passing through Jericho. He had heard about the miracles and about what a good, great man He was. He wanted to see Jesus very much. Zacchaeus was a little, short man. There were so many people following Jesus. There were people all around him. Since Zacchaeus was not very tall, he could not see above all these people. And he wanted to see Jesus so very, very much.

Do you know what he did? He ran on ahead of the crowd and climbed up a sycamore tree. He thought to himself, "Now I can see this great man as he passes by."

When Jesus came to the tree, he looked up and saw Zacchaeus. Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus. Now Jesus saw him! Jesus called him by name. He said, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down from that tree. Today I am going home with you." Can't you just almost hear Zacchaeus' heart beating so fast? Jesus knew his name! He is going home with him! He was so thrilled. He came down from that tree quickly. He received Jesus joyfully into his house.

The people with Jesus were horrified. They began to murmur, "Jesus has gone to be a guest of a sinner." They thought that was terrible! However, that did not bother Jesus at all. He loved Zacchaeus just as much as he did those who were complaining. He went to Zacchaeus' house.

Zacchaeus said to Jesus, "I will give half my goods to the poor people. If I have taken anything from anybody dishonestly, I will give him four times as much." Being with Jesus and seeing what a good man he was caused Zacchaeus to do right.

Jesus said, "This day salvation has come to this house. I have come to look for and save the lost."

Because Jesus was Zacchaeus' friend, Zacchaeus became a good man.

LESSON 7

The Good Samaritan

Luke 10:25–37

Memory Verse: John 14:23a

“If anyone loves me, he will keep my word.”

As Jesus went about doing good, he taught God's word to the people. Sometimes he told stories to teach them important lessons.

Some people tried to get Jesus to say or do the wrong thing, but they could not do that.

However, a certain lawyer tried just that. He asked Jesus, “What must I do to have eternal life?” This is a good question, but the lawyer did not really want to know. Jesus knew this because he knows our thoughts.

Jesus asked him what did God's word tell him. The lawyer answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind. And to love your neighbor as yourself.”

Jesus told him he answered correctly. He told him to do these things and that would please God.

But the lawyer asked, “Who is my neighbor?”

Then Jesus told him a story to teach him who his neighbor is.

A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. Thieves attacked him. They stripped him of his clothes. They beat him and left him half dead.

Soon a priest happened to come by. He looked at the half dead man. Perhaps he thought, “Another one is hurt. It is always happening here.” He did nothing for the injured man. He just went on his way.

Then a Levite, another religious leader, came that way. When he saw the wounded man, he only looked at him. Perhaps he thought, "That's too bad. These thieves and robbers are awful." Anyway he went on his way.

Then a Samaritan (a person whom these people hated) came along. When he saw the man lying there, he felt sorry for him. He went to him and poured oil and wine (medicine of that day) into his wounds. He bandaged his wounds. Then he put the injured man on his own donkey and took him to an inn or hotel. You understand the Samaritan walked beside his donkey as it carried the half dead man. At the hotel he took care of the man.

The next day he had to leave on his journey. Since the man was not well yet, he gave two silver coins to the innkeeper. He asked the innkeeper to take care of the wounded man. He said, "When I return, I will give you more money to repay you for what you have to spend on him until he is well."

When Jesus finished telling this story, he asked the lawyer, "Which of these three (priest, Levite, Samaritan) was a neighbor to the man who fell among thieves?"

The lawyer answered, "The one who showed mercy to him."

Jesus said, "You go and help others like the Samaritan did." The Samaritan was a good friend to the wounded man. He loved his neighbor.

Now who will tell us the story of the half dead man and the good Samaritan?

LESSON 8

The Good Shepherd

John 10:1-18; Luke 15:4-7

Memory Verse: John 10:11

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep."

Jesus compared himself to a shepherd.

Many people among whom Jesus lived nearly 2000 years ago owned sheep. The ones who took care of the sheep were called shepherds. At night, the sheep were kept in a sheepfold. A stone wall was built around the sheepfold to keep the sheep in and its enemies out.

Each morning the shepherd led the sheep out of the sheepfold. He went before them, guiding them and calling them. The sheep followed him. He knew where the pastures or fields were green. He took them there to eat. When they were thirsty, he took them to still watering places to drink.

At all times the shepherd watched his flock of sheep, keeping them from wandering away. If a sheep went away from the flock, the shepherd looked for it until he found it. He was always so happy to find a lost sheep. With a rod he kept animals away that would harm them, or robbers who would steal them.

The shepherd used his long staff with crook on one end to keep his sheep in the right path. He used it to help them over rough, dangerous places.

In the evening he brought his sheep back to the sheepfold for the night. Only one sheep could enter at a time. In that way, the shepherd could count his sheep to be sure that were all there. He did not want to lose a single one of them! Also, as each sheep entered, he looked for any cuts and bruises. If he found any, he doctored them with oil to help them get well. The shepherd kept a big jug of water. As each sheep came in, he gave it a cup of water. The tired sheep drank the water and felt better.

When all were in the sheepfold, the shepherd watched the entrance during the night.

A good shepherd loves his sheep. He is very careful of any of their needs. He is kind to them. He even carries the little lambs in his arms over dangerous places. He gently leads the young ones where they should go. If any bones are broken, he binds them so they will get well. He doctors the sick ones. He will not let anything keep him from caring for his sheep. He will even die protecting his sheep from animals and robbers.

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep and they know me." People who obey Jesus become his followers. They are his sheep. Jesus knows his sheep by name and they follow him.

Of course, Jesus does not keep his sheep (followers) in a real sheepfold. He does not feed them green grass. But, just as a shepherd loves and cares for his sheep, so Jesus loves and takes care of his sheep. He is kind and gentle with them. He looks after them. If they stray away, he looks for them. He goes in front of them and shows them the way to live. When they become hurt or sick, he cares. He gives them the things they need.

So Jesus, being our good shepherd, is our kind, loving, faithful friend. No one cares like Jesus cares. He said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep."

LESSON 9

Jesus Gave His life For His Sheep

Matthew 27; 28; Acts 1:1-11

Memory Verse: John 15:13

"Greater love has no one that this, than to lay down one's life for his friends."

Jesus loves everyone. He does not like their bad deeds, but he loves each person. He wanted to be everyone's friend, but everyone did not love Jesus, because they were bad men. What they were doing was evil. To be their friend, Jesus had to tell them what they were doing wrong. They hated him for that. They were determined to keep doing wrong.

They thought Jesus wanted to set up His kingdom on earth and be king, but he did not. They did not understand, so they wanted him out of the way.

They arrested Him and took Him to Pilate, the governor. He asked them what Jesus had done that He should be arrested. They did not know of anything He had done wrong. They only cried, "He needs to die!" They wanted Him crucified.

Pilate tried three times to allow Jesus to go free. However, the people were so loud, saying, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him," so Pilate finally turned Jesus over to them to be killed.

The soldiers took Jesus and put a purple robe on Him. A crown of thorns was put on His head. They put a stick in His hand. They bowed before Him, making fun of Him. They hit Him on the head with the stick. They slapped Him. They spit on Him.

But Jesus did not hit them or say anything to them. He still loved them.

Then, he was taken to a place called Calvary. There His hands and feet were nailed to a cross. While hanging on the cross, Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." After suffering on the cross for six hours, Jesus died.

Then two of His friends gently took His body and buried it.

This makes us sad that people would treat our friend, Jesus, this way. The saddest thing is that people can be so mean. But Jesus did not want us to be sad. You remember He was able to make people live again after they had died.

So Jesus could not stay in His grave. On the third day of His death, God raised Jesus from the dead. He lived again! His followers were very surprised when He appeared to them. It was very difficult for them to realize they were really seeing Jesus, but He talked to them and ate with them. For forty days He walked among his followers (His sheep).

Then He took them to a town outside Jerusalem. Jesus blessed His followers and then He was taken up into heaven. A cloud received Him out of their sight. Jesus went back to Heaven to live with God, His Father. There, He was made King of kings. He is king of His kingdom. He lives forevermore to care for His sheep. He sees and knows us. He knows what we are doing and what is happening to us. He still loves us and He is still our great, forgiving friend!
