The meaning of Matthew 7:5 is that the "book" is Matthew, "7" is the chapter, and "5" is the verse.

JESUS, OUR TEACHER

As we read the Bible, we soon learn that Jesus was the greatest teacher of all time. He taught not only by words, but by example by the way He lived. Jesus used simple illustrations to teach the truth He was revealing to the world. These illustrations or stories are called parables. Jesus based his lessons on what the people already knew. He used what they were familiar with. He was our Master Teacher. Let's listen and learn the great lesson of life from him.

A Short Story of Jesus, Our Teacher

Jesus teaches us many wonderful lessons. He wants us to forgive like the  forgave his

, and not do as the  who put his . He wants us to increase our s by using them to glorify God. He wants us to give  to the hungry, to the thirsty,  to the needy. He wants us to help those who need help as the did. He wants us to be rich toward God by helping others and not be like the  who wanted to build a bigger  just for himself. He wants us to build our  on a rock (on God's commandments) and not on the .

When the  ran to meet his lost ,

Jesus taught us with this parable that God loves us very much. Jesus wants his followers to be the of the . He wants to be your and lead U, and for U to him, because he loves U.
